

Lewes Wanderers Cycling Club - Evening Crits - Round 1 - 1/06/17

Race Synopsis: Strong show in the Primes with the GC contenders making themselves known from the first Prime on lap 2. John Cordner missed out on a clean sweep when Shane Pope won the third Prime. From the finish line, spectators watched a strong rider move off the front on a final lap breakaway and were confused that the rider attempting to follow had no race number. In the final sprint the move from the right side of the road allowed a strong push from team Cycle Room which bought their man first. Other position were hotly contested with Wanderers sensation in the form of Junior Rider Cameron Cragg stealing 4th.

Note: The numberless rider turned out to be a random cyclist that decided to join the race and obstinately refused to follow requests from the NEG and Commissaire to leave the race on the basis he was cycling on public roads. After riding through the finish and seeing lots of onlookers, he dropped off the race apparently coming to the realisation he shouldn't have joined in.

Despite Matt Twelvetrees win, John Cordner pips him to the top of the GC classification due to his dominance in the Primes.
